Wrapped in natural abaca rope, the Vilmar Floor Mirror has two things that make it a serious statement in a room: the texture of the rope-wrapped frame and its statuesque size. The elemental feel of the painstakingly applied material makes this decorative mirror perfect for a number of settings—from a seaside retreat to an urban loft nestled into a coastal community. Not only will its tall mirror reflect the abundance of sea and sky beyond the windows, the rope is a nod to the seafaring life.
