As if it is glancing back to antiquity when primitive vessels were coveted as important life-sustainers, our Bavi Brass Large Vase affects a primordial pose. Made of cast aluminum that has been treated to a mix of antique brass and black finishes, the appearance of age on this decorative accessory comes from the shape and the surface. The black finish gathers in the crevices and in the stippling purposefully left on the piece to make the brass feel older than time itself. The Bavi comes in several sizes and finishes.
