There is a reason designs that reflect classic antiquity keep cropping up in our product line: you simply can't go wrong with attributes that have stood the test of time. Our Petia Table Lamp has design DNA that goes way back, but we've modernized the geometrics to make it perfect for a contemporary home. Notice how the metal rings surrounding the green marble discs that are fitted to the white marble body work in concert with the ever-so-thin metal base to update the lamp's aesthetics. These, treated to an antique brass finish, also meld with the black shantung shade to enhance the design's warmth.
