As is the case with all of our Abaca-clad pieces, the skill and talent required to create seamless surfaces is a painstaking art. With our Higel Table Lamp, it's an even greater challenge given the two-toned stripes covering its rotund body. The olive-jar shape clad in Abaca rope has been fitted with a wood stem, painted black to match the darker tones in the rope, that holds the hardware. A rope-wrapped finial holds the black silk shade in place.
