Industrial chic never looked so stunning as it does in the profile of the Kiseu Table Lamp. Made of metal that we have treated to an antique brass finish and a column of black marble, the composition sits atop a round base into which the on/off switch is set. Twin metal shades that echo the roundness of the marble column and base extend from a thin stem that culminates in small tab-like accents. Geometrically, the Kiseu is a handsomely complex design.
