Having an adjustable reading light is one thing; having one with so much style is quite the other. Our Kilby Floor Lamp, in the Barry Goralnick collection, proves this designer's talents for taking the basic and making it ingenious. The clever way the lamp slides to raise or lower not only makes this lamp versatile, it adds to its design notes. Made of metal in an oil-rubbed bronze finish, we've topped this smart fixture with an off-white shantung shade to create contrast.
