The uptick in style will be so lofty when the Soar Chandelier is winding its illumination overhead the room will take on an otherworldly glow. Made of wrought iron that we have treated to a contemporary silver leaf finish, the clever way the bulbs lay on the spring-like frame makes this an artfully designed piece. In spite of its shape, it only pretends flexibility except when it comes to the number of styles it will be comfortable illuminating. We also offer the Soar in a rectangular chandelier.
