When the elemental is a preferred feel in an interior, natural materials such as Arurog bring an extra dose of warmth. Our Vanadis Pendant is wrapped in the rattan-like reeds that we have bound to wrought iron in a satin black finish. The result is a down-to-earth globe that would be perfect in a spa setting, a lake house, a coastal condo or a boutique hotel with an Island vibe. This is one of our pieces that illustrates the skill of our talented artisans who work with a wide array of materials.
