Any way you slice it, our Chiffonade Small Pendant has an elegant fluidity in its lines that curl downward with a lovely swirl. Made of wrought iron, the exterior of this sconce has been treated to an antique black finish. To heighten the gracefulness of the piece, we treated the interior to a contemporary gold finish. This also brings a warm glow to the illumination that wafts from between the arcing bands of metal. We also offer the Chiffonade in a larger pendant and in a wall sconce.
