Product Description

Sleek and sophisticated, our Monroe table lamp is inspired by a simple and timeless design that pairs a clear Crystal column with brushed brass accents. A stately piece that complements transitional, modern and traditional interiors, the Lucas + McKearn Monroe lamp is perfectly balanced with a faceted shaped base and a circular Drum shade of white linen. This clear glass table lamp will add an impressive feel of light and space to a room, with the angled glass subtly catching the light by day and sparkling when lit.
