The Nori chandelier by Feiss features vintage elements like beautifully cascading Driftwood Grey Wood beads and the rustic flair of a Dark Weathered Zinc finish which brings rich texture to this classic fixture. A large Driftwood Grey Wood bead suspends from the center of the frame, adding a touch of elegance to this traditional silhouette, making it work well in both formal and more casual settings. Alternatively, the chandelier may be installed with a round bottom cap, for a cleaner look. The large scale (34" high and 32" diameter) of the Nori chandelier is perfect for lighting a foyer, dining room, living room, bedroom or even gracious commercial spaces like restaurants, hotels and retail boutiques. Exposed candelabra lamping completes the traditional antique feel of the six-light Nori chandelier.
